ODD LADIES CELEBRATE THEIR FIFTH ANNIVERSARY.

The ladies of Star Lodge, No. 2, I. O. O. F., of this city, celebrated the fifth anniversary of the institution of this lodge in the Mead's hall on Wednesday afternoon and evening, the 16th inst., in a manner which speaks volumes for the versatile, intellectual and entertaining qualities of this splendid corps of ladies.

The afternoon session was given over to the routine work of the order, the exemplification of the work and the reception of the sister of Granite State and Mount Washington Lodges of Dover, to the number of seventy-five, who had been invited as special guests of the ladies of Star Lodge.

At 7 o'clock a magnificent banquet was served in the banquet hall, consisting of cold meats, scalloped oysters, salads, roast turkey, baked beans, hot rolls, pies, cake, fruits, ice cream and coffee. The tables presented a beautiful appearance, the floral adornments being especially fine. Covers were laid for two hundred people and all were occupied, with not a man in the entire company. The discussion of the tempting viands occupied nearly two hours and if laughter and jollity aids digestion not one in that merry two hundred suffered with cramp or colic from too much eating at the festive board.

At 8:30 o'clock the ladies again repaired to the lodge room, where a literary and musical programme of great excellence waited away the next two hours all too rapidly. There were readings, dialogues, chorales, tableaux, solos, vocal and instrumental, and to wind up with a band of jubilee singers from Alabama, followed by a cake walk. The latter feature was participated in by fifteen ladies, in the most grotesque costumes and wearing hideous masks, and created a whirlwind of fun. The Dover sisters sat as judges on the cake walkers and unanimously awarded the twenty-pound cake to Miss M. L. Fernald. Miss Fernald rightly earned the cake and the applause which greeted its presentation fairly lifted the roof.

The occasion was one of the most successful and brilliant in the history of the organization and a great credit to the efficient committee of ladies in charge. The Dover ladies returned home on the late evening train, enthusiastically delighted with their trip to old Strawberry Bank.

REPUBLICAN SUPPER IN NEWINGTON.

Representative-elect Joseph S. Hoyt of Newington, gave a banquet at the town hall in that town on Wednesday evening, the 15th inst., at which 300 citizens and invited guests were present.

A large number of the ladies of both republicans and democratic affiliations, aided at the tables and saw that everybody had an abundance of turkey with all the fixings.

The spread was for five hundred and if six hundred had been present the supply would have been ample with some to spare.

It was one of the pleasantest events of the season in which both political parties were present and one and all joined in the best wishes to Representative Hoyt.

After the supper the tables were cleared and all joined in the merry dance. The music was fine. Mrs. Cole, nee Miss Fannie Hoyt, with violin, accompanied Miss Faye Hoyt on the piano.

Among the guests present from Portsmouth were noticed: Sheriff John Penner, Ex Representative Herbert B. Dow, Alderman John K. Bates, Ex Alderman John E. Rider, Ex Alderman Joshua Vaughan, J. Edward Pickering, Dr. S. F. A. Pickering and many others. From Rye came Representative J. Jenness Rand, who was given a cordial reception.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous membrane.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Should Remain Suspended

The mayor of Portsmouth has suspended Hett, the street commissioner who fancied himself the only official in that city. He should remain suspended. The moral effect is not in Portsmouth alone. — Nashua Press.

WORK NOT DONE HERE.

The converted tug Wompatuck left the New York yard Tuesday night for Newport and will tow the cruiser Buffalo back to that port at once. The Buffalo was on her way to Manila when her machinery got out of order and she had to put into Newport.

The fact that she is to be brought back to the navy yard indicates that she has met with external injury and will have to go into dry dock. Otherwise, some of the officials said Tuesday night, the repairs could be made in Boston. If she has to go into the dry dock, all her coal, supplies and ammunition will have to be discharged in order to lighten her. Constructor Bowles said the Buffalo was in first-class condition when she left the yard.

WILL GIVE A GREAT SHOW.

Manager Huntress of the P. C. C. minstrel show, has selected the following fun makers for the ends, and has shown excellent judgment in his choice: Tambos, Messrs. Nickerson, Barotio, Mitchell and Bickford; bones, Messrs. Kelley, Tilton, Kehoe and Rowe. Mr. Clifton Pike will again fill the interactor chair, which he did with so much credit at the last show given by the club.

Musical Director Bilbruck has the music nearly all arranged, both for the singers and the orchestra, and those who have been privileged to listen to the opening overture are loud in their praise of the work of this talented young musician.

Reflections of a Bachelor

Either a girl is in love or else a man looks funny when he proposes. In the game of life, when Love deals, hearts is trump; when Death deals, it is spades. By the time a man has heard all one woman knows about another woman he is generally sure that he likes the other best.

No woman can ever put down a carpet when there is another woman there, because she has to hold the tacks in her mouth.

Every man would get married if he thought he had money enough, and every woman would get married if some man thought she had brains enough. — New York Press.

AT THE NAVY YARD.

Riggers are now at work on the Lancaster.

Master Boiler-maker M. E. Long is quite seriously ill.

Twenty calkers completed their duties on the yard Wednesday night.

A large amount of heavy machinery is being purchased for the construction department.

All the successful bidders for Camp Long property were notified by mail on Wednesday morning.

Commander George C. Remy attended the Episcopal convention at Concord on Tuesday as a delegate from St. John's church.

Officers Chosen

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Portsmouth Brewing Co., was held at the company's office on Bow street on Wednesday and the following officers were chosen for the ensuing year:

President—Arthur Harris of New York.

Vice President—Thomas Leary, Portsmouth.

Treasurer—William F. Harrington, Manchester.

Purchasing Agent—Arthur Harris, New York.

Directors—Arthur Harris, New York; Thomas Leary, Portsmouth; P. Harrington, Manchester; James McGlinchey, Portland; William F. Harrington, Manchester.

Cleaning Up the Fifth

The Mayor's threatened shelving of Street Commissioner Hett has been productive of one good thing if nothing more. Since his advent into office no more hard work has been put in on the streets than during the past few days. Work has been suspended at the stone crusher and the whole force has been busy scraping from morn until night. The road scraper has been out in charge of Brother August and drawn by six horses. Mr Hett was evidently afraid that the citizens might accept the Mayor's invitation to look about a little for themselves.

Hett Still Tempting Fate

Two well known ladies who reside at the West End had a narrow escape while at the cemetery on Tuesday. They had just left the lot where their brother was recently interred when a blast was fired off at the city pit. A moment later a large rock, the size of a ton pound cannon ball, fell close by them and buried itself in the earth.

THE GENERAL COURT

Democrats Will Number 108 Members in the Lower House

The next New Hampshire House of Representatives will be made up of 251 Republicans, 107 Democrats and one Independent Democrat, William E. Hawkins of Greenfield. In one town, New Hampton, a tie vote prevents the sending of a representative. The senate will stand 22 Republicans and two democrats, and the Republican majority in joint ballot will be 164.

KITTERY, ME.

The grand fair of the York Bebekah lodge, No. 3, opened in Wentworth hall, on Wednesday evening, the 15th inst., with a big crowd present.

The ladies of York lodge are hustlers from the word go and the opening night of their fair was crowned with success. The purpose of the fair is to raise funds to pay for a piano recently furnished by the lodge and with any kind of success this Thursday evening their will be no doubt that the ladies will accomplish their purpose.

Around the hall was arranged various booths and tables, tastefully decorated and fairly loaded with useful and ornamental articles, also dainties to please the palate.

There were candy tables, apron tables, booths where fancy work was exhibited and on sale, cake tables, and tables from which tempting cups of cocoa and chocolate were served. There was a harvest table on which was a fine display of vegetables, home canned fruits and jellies donated by friends and in fact there was almost everything there to catch the spare nickles and dimes of the big crowd present.

In one corner was a booth which proved a source of delight for the children and not a few of the big ones. This was a goose pen where the old white goose on being fed with nickles laid many a golden egg in the shape of toys and nick nacks, dear to the childish heart.

Of course there were guess cakes. What fair would be complete without a guess cake? Then there was a cake with a ring in it. You buy a slice and stand a chance of getting a solid gold ring that was baked in the tempting loaf. And the ladies in charge. They were here, there and everywhere attending the wants of the patrons and seeing none went away without being persuaded to invest in some of the numerous articles on sale.

During the evening an excellent entertainment was given which added much to the enjoyment of the affair.

The programme was as follows:

1. Piano Solo, Miss Naomi Roberts.
2. Revitation, Little Margaret Jackson.
3. Solo, Miss Annie Deane.
4. Dramatic Revitation, Miss Roberts.
5. Duett, Misses Ora and Mattie Williams.
6. Skit Dance, Miss Roberts.
7. Reading, Mrs. Lucile J. Paul.
8. Piano Solo, Miss Roberts.

The ladies in charge of the various booths and tables were the following:

Candy Table, Abbie Philbrick and Hattie Wentworth.

Fancy Table, Nettie Wilcox, Ida Otis and Angie Clifford.

Harvest Table, Alice Caswell and Hattie Adams.

Cake Table, Emma Jackson and Lulu Donnell.

Ice Cream, Almendra McElfetre, assisted by Marion Philbrick, Georgie Farwell, Lulu Smith, and Edward Bowden.

The fair will continue this evening, when another large crowd will doubt be in attendance.

J. E. Kelly of Newfields was in town Wednesday.

W. B. Basten of Portland was in town yesterday and registered at the Piscataqua.

A party of Bennett & Moulton theatrical company were in town Wednesday and visited the navy yard.

The W. C. T. U. met with Mrs. Tucker at the Junction yesterday afternoon.

A large crowd from here attended the matinee in Portsmouth Wednesday afternoon.

On Friday evening the Epworth League will hold a business meeting at the close of the regular service in the vestry.

There will be a select dancing party at the hotel Champernowne this evening.

Mrs. Geo. Dixon went to Dover Wednesday, called there by the serious illness of her mother.

Rev. John G. Dutton preached at the Court street Christian church in Portsmouth last evening for Rev. Mr. Tyler.

E. G. Parker, W. R. C., will hold a meeting tonight, and a full attendance is earnestly desired, as business of special importance will come before the meeting.

The annual parish gathering of the 2d Christian church will be held one week from next Friday in the church auditorium.

Rev. John George Dutton, pastor of the 2d Christian church, has a cane which was made from the original threshold of the original church, which was destroyed by fire a few years ago, the handle of which being made from a piece of the original old frigate Constitution. The cane was made by Samuel Pillsbury, and is an elegant thing, and is prized very highly by the genial clergyman.

J. Edward Remick, who has just come from the Alaskan gold fields, has been in town for a couple of days and left this morning for Boston.

Edward Brown, a former Kittery boy, arrived in town this morning to attend the funeral of his aunt, Mrs. Martha Williams.

The funeral services consequent over the remains of the late Mrs. Martha Williams were held at the 2d Christian church this afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. John G. Dutton, the pastor, officiating. The church was well filled with relatives and friends of the deceased, and the floral offerings were many and beautiful. Mrs. Williams will be greatly missed by the entire community, as she was a true Christian woman. Interment was in the family lot at Orchard Grove cemetery.

Samuel W. Emery, Reformer

Samuel W. Emery, when he took the judgeship made vacant by the death of the late Judge Charles E. Batchelder, made an opening speech in which he said that there would be a reform in the department. Police courts would be held at a certain hour every morning and at the police station. No more dark lantern sessions at basement hours. The newspaper men know how long that reform boom lasted.

Mr. Emery then turned his attention to politics and promised to purify them in the city of Portsmouth. In order to do a good job he has eaten corn from both political managers in the past few years and now of his own accord declares that politics are "rotten". His latest reform attack is upon the newspapers. The J. d. has troubles of his own without attempting to assume those of running a newspaper. From all reports he will be kept pretty busy for some time to come working up a fence for tricky politicians.

Inherited Catarrh

Sore Throat, Stomach Trouble, Great Distress

Hood's Sarsaparilla Gives Relief After Others Fail.

"I was a sufferer with catarrh, inherited from my mother. I had the grip twice and was very ill. After this the catarrh came on in a more severe form. I could eat but little without great distress, and began to think I could never eat like other people. I also suffered intensely with sore throat, which made me sick for a week at a time. I thought I would try Hood's Sarsaparilla, having seen it highly recommended, though I had tried many medicines without benefit. In a short time I began to feel better. I kept on with it and continued to gain. I am rested in weight and have been greatly benefited." Mrs. E. R. PERRYMAN, Laconia, N. H.

THE HERALD.
THURSDAY, NOV. 17, 1899.

SONG RECITAL.

The song recital by Miss Dickey, Portsmouth's charming and sweet-voiced contralto, in Peirce hall on Wednesday evening, the 16th inst., drew on a splendid audience of our most prominent music-loving people to listen to the delightful programme arranged for the evening. Miss Dickey was assisted by Miss Mabel S. Titcomb, violinist, a member of the Woman's Symphony orchestra of Boston; Miss Maude M. Broadway, reader, a graduate of Emerson college; and Miss Alice M. Swasey, accompanist, of this city. Miss Dickey was in magnificent voice and sang her numbers with wonderful execution and brilliancy, receiving encore after encore, and was the recipient of several beautiful floral offerings. Miss Titcomb, although a stranger to Portsmouth audiences, was given a most cordial reception, and was immediately enraptured with her hearers, her skillful handling of the bow, bringing out the entrancing strains of the sweetest of all musical instruments, with an ease and simplicity that immediately stamped her as an artist of rare ability. Miss Broadway's selections were delightfully pleasing and splendidly rendered. She has a sweet, flexible and well modulated voice, a splendid stage presence and possesses great elocutionary power. Miss Swasey, as accompanist, presided at the piano, as she always does, in a graceful, able and painstaking manner, and the smoothness and precision of her playing had much to do with the success of the recital.

Following is the programme:

1. "Inflammatus" from "Stabat Mater." Dvorak
2. (a) Andante. Bohm
- (b) Gavotte. Bohm
3. "La Valle." Miss Titcomb. Gounod
4. "Star Bright." Miss Dickey. Richards
- A cutting from "Capt. January."
5. "Sundown" (with violin obbligato). Miss Dickey. DeBeriot
6. "Scene de Ballet." Miss Titcomb. DeBeriot
7. (a) "Wenn ich in deine Augen seh." Manney
- (b) "Widmung." Manney
- (c) "Spring Song." Mackenzie
8. "A Good Way." Miss Dickey. Fielding
9. Schubert Cycle. Miss Broadway.
- (a) "Death and the Girl."
- (b) "The Maiden's Lament"
- (c) "Bark! Bark! the Lark."

Arrived today, barge Alabama, Frost, from Newport News, with 2700 tons coal, also barge Mt Carmel, Jelusich, from Philadelphia, with 1500 tons coal, both for J A & W Walker.

The words of praise bestowed upon Hood's Sarsaparilla by those who have taken it prove the merit of the medicine.

Advice to Consumptives

There are three great remedies that every person with weak lungs, or with consumption itself, should understand. These remedies will cure about every case in its first stages; and many of those more advanced. It is only the most advanced that are hopeless. Even these are wonderfully relieved and life itself greatly prolonged. What are these remedies? Fresh air, proper food and of Cod-Liver Oil with Hypophosphites. Be afraid of draughts but not of fresh air. Eat nutritious food and drink plenty of milk. Do not forget that Scott's Emulsion is the oldest, the most thoroughly tested and the highest endorsed of all remedies for weak throats, weak lungs and consumption in all its stages.

Scott's Emulsion

HAD MONEY TO BURN.

Hotel Clerk Surprised by an Artillery Officer With Money

The local correspondent of the Manchester Union tells the following story which is certainly new:

A pretty good story is in circulation here. It seems that when the Connecticut battery was rushed to Fort Constitution last summer for the protection of this harbor, it was found that there were no accommodations at first for the men, and one of the soldiers went to the finest hotel in this section of the country to stop. After placing his name on the register he said, "I would like a room here for a week." The clerk looked at the soldier, looking at his clothes and seeing he was only a non-commissioned officer said he guessed the soldier had made a mistake in the house. "I guess not," said the soldier. "This is good enough for me." At this the clerk said, "I've no doubt of that, but the hotel you want is down the road further."

"No, sir, it isn't. This is the place I want and I guess I'll stay here," said the soldier, growing a bit impatient.

"Sir," said the clerk, do you know this is the most expensive hotel in the State?"

"I don't care if it is. Here is my pay for my room in advance and if you wish to sell me the hotel I could buy it if I wished."

The soldier stayed. It now leaks out that he was one of the Connecticut Chennys who has a million and a half in his own name and the only son of the largest silk manufacturer in this country, a man worth several millions. There was many a rich soldier in the late war and some like this one have been rewarded by promotion for he is now a first lieutenant in the regular army. That hotel clerk is surprised to learn who his soldier guest was.

FALL TOURISTS

Tramp Lodgers Again Becoming Numerous at Public Station

Now that the cold weather has set in a great many tramps apply at the police station nightly for lodgings. During the summer these tourists sleep out of doors, in old sheds, by the side of the roads or in fact, in most any place where they can lay weary bones. In the winter months they make straight for the nearest town where there is a station to provide for them.

These fellows, as a rule, are well posted, and know where they will be treated well. There is always an increase in their numbers during the fall months but this year they are more numerous than ever before.

As a general rule the "Weary Willies" drop into the station house early in the evening and leave early in the morning. Most of them strike out for Dover or Kittery if they are going east or Manchester or Newburyport if going in the opposite direction.

POLICE COURT

A young man by the name of Broderick was arraigned before Judge S W Emery in police court this morning charged with being drunk on Congress street. From the testimony of Officers Shannon and Ho'brook, who arrested Broderick, he was found guilty and ordered to pay a fine of $10 and costs of prosecution, taxed at $6.90. He appealed and was ordered to furnish sureties in sum of $100 for his appearance at the next term of court, which he did, and was released. He was quite abusive and gave the officers some trouble before being taken into custody.

Hand Badly Burned

Hayes Cotton of the Kearsarge house had his right hand terribly burned this morning by escaping steam. Mr Cotton was engaged in repairing his pool table at the Kearsarge house, and was about to heat a cloth to mend a small out in the covering of the table, when, not thinking, turned on the steam, badly burning his hand, almost scalding the flesh from three of his fingers.

Dr Sherburne was called and dressed Mr Cotton's hand and made him as comfortable as possible under the circumstances. It will be some time before Mr Cotton will be able to use his hand readily.

Hear All the Evidence

All the citizens of Portsmouth require at the hearing tomorrow evening is that the truth be known and there should be no legal quibbles to prevent the same. The lawyers on both sides should present the testimony in a simple, intelligent manner, devoid of all legal phraseology, and no attempt should be made to conceal anything or browbeat witnesses. The issue should not be lost sight of in flowery language or grand stand speeches. At the conclusion the decision should be made upon evidence produced and not upon the amount of talking done. The members of the city councils have a grave question before them and must do their duty fearlessly and impartially.

To be Held in Court Room.

Mayor Tilton has seen County Commissioner De Rochmont and obtained permission to hold the hearing tomorrow evening in the supreme court room at the county court house. This room will prove none too large for the crowd of citizens who will appear and whom the Mayor is anxious should be present to hear what is said. They will not then be forced to depend upon what Judge Emery terms "lying newspapers."

SANDOVAL AND ALVARADO.

The Captured Spanish Gunboats Put Into Jacksonville, Fla.

A despatch from Jacksonville, Fla., says: "Lieut. E. A. Anderson, commanding the captured Spanish gunboat Sandoval, and Lieut. Victor Blue, commanding the Alvarado, came into port with their vessels on Tuesday afternoon, the 15th inst., from Key West. The Sandoval was the vessel scuttled by the Spaniards near Camp McCalla and afterward raised. The Alvarado was captured at Santiago. The vessels are en route to Portsmouth, N. H., to be repaired and made over. They had rough weather all the way from Santiago and were in the storm in which the Teresa was lost. Coming from Key West they struck another northerly, and came in here for safety and for supplies. The Sandoval is in very bad condition and Lieut. Anderson has not slept for two days, having a small crew."

Foot Ball Notes

The New Hampshire college football team organized last evening for the season of 1899. Harry H Calderwood 01 was reelected captain. Capt Calderwood was captain of the Nashua high school eleven, and was acting captain and fallback of last year's varsity eleven. The New Hampshire college eleven defeated St Anselm's college Wednesday, 11 to 0. St Anselm's was unfortunate in having to lay off two of her best players, Carey and Kennedy, in the first half, during which no score was made. The playing was fast. Wright, Calderwood and Lewis played a good game for N H C.

The Dover high school eleven plays here Saturday with the local high school boys.
